Dear Tiago,

15 April 2015

I am writing to you from big apple, the Google company.

It's really fun working here, this place is full of toys and a lot of intelligent people working on world-changing projects.

Usually I wake up at 6:30am, and have a quick breakfast . At 7:30am I check my e-mail, then afterwards i take shower, get dressed, and then I go to work.

From 9:00am till 12:00pm, I work with my team.

At 12:00pm it's time for lunch. In the office all food is free, so I can eat whatever I want to. At 12:30pm i play some games to chill out.

At 1:00pm we meet with our producers of project to coordinate features between producers and engineers. Next i start to work again.

I leave the office at 6:30pm. Then i go to gym for an hour.

At 8:30pm i go out with my workmates. At 11:00pm i go to bed , read for an hour and go to sleep.

I hope you enjoyed my daily routine and come visit me anytime soon.

Love,

Olga
