Lost in Translation by Sofia Coppola

Formanda: Olga Ilyina nº21

Data: 20/04/2015

The movie talking about the importance of communication of the people in a different country, with a different language. That is why English should be more talked by natives. There we can see that Bob Harris and Charlotte have a huge difficult in communication with the others people in Japan.

In the movie we can see that technology is more developed and advanced, for the 2003, than in whole world.
